

Glengarry Nurse Practitioner-Led Clinic

Cliniques dirigées par du personnel infirmier praticien de Glengarry

The Glengarry Nurse Practitioner-Led Clinic (GNPLC) is one of 25 progressive clinics in Ontario delivering client-centered primary health care and preventive services using a team-based approach that supports optimum health and wellness outcomes for our clients and community. Our innovative model of care enables Nurse Practitioners to practice to their full scope of skill, in collaboration with an engaged team of nurses, a dietitian, a community mental health worker, a physiotherapist and a chiropractor.

We are recruiting a primary care Nurse Practitioner (up to 35 hours per week) maternity/parental leave contract anticipated 16 months (July 2021).

Key areas of responsibility include:

- performing comprehensive health or symptom directed assessments of clients to make a diagnosis.
- determining the need for, orders and interprets the results of diagnostic laboratory and screening tests within scope of practice.
- providing advanced nursing care and treatment within a client-centered framework.
- monitoring the ongoing therapy of clients with chronic illness by providing effective pharmacological, complementary, or counseling interventions.
- collaborating with medical specialists, sector partners and inter-professional team members to develop individualized care plans based on clinical best practices.
- promoting a disease prevention/ health promotion model of primary care.
- providing care in accordance with the Standards of Practice for Registered Nurses in the Extended Class and Expanded Services for Patients Act.

Qualifications:

- Current and valid registration and certificate in the Extended Class with the College of Nurses of Ontario (without restriction). Certification as a Primary Health Care NP, in Ontario.
- Baccalaureate Degree in Nursing from an approved university, Master of Science (Nursing), an asset.
- Current member of NPAO/CNO with evidence of liability insurance.
- 3-5 years recent clinical experience within a Primary Health Care setting.
- Exceptional understanding of current, evidence based methods and practices of primary health care delivery.
- Demonstrated knowledge of client self-management techniques regarding chronic diseases.
- Excellent knowledge of primary and secondary prevention strategies.
- Mental health and acute care experience is considered an asset.
- Proficiency with Electronic Medical Records (EMR) and computer knowledge required.
- Superior interpersonal, communication and time management skills.
- English proficiency is required and a proficiency in French is an asset.

Submit resume via e-mail to Penelope Smith, Executive Director at alead@glengarryclinic.ca

Deadline March 13, 2020

Accommodation will be provided for all parts of the application process in compliance with the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA). Applicants must make their needs known in advance.

*Please Note – only those applicants selected for an interview will be contacted
All other applicants are thanked in advance for their interest and support*